Chain RevPar Evolution

During March, the average rate once again reached a record high for the Chain. Most notably, positive results were seen in the Southeast, Northeast, and Metropolitan regions. This month's performance can be attributed to the surge in traveler traffic in metropolitan areas, coupled with the recovery of the Bajío and the Central regions, which had the highest growth in occupancy compared to the previous year. We also continued to see improved results from our hotels in the major manufacturing corridors, resulting from nearshoring effects as well as the enhanced performance of our CE Plus brand, which was the main driver of the average rate increase.

Consolidated Revenue Evolution

Finally, consolidated revenue for March reached $318.9 million pesos, representing a 26.8% increase vs. the previous year 2022.
